PLANT THIS FALL

HOLLAND'S FINEST

AMERICA'S BEST

IT'S NOW TIME TO ORDER

Nothing will give more beauty in your spring garden than these finest of bulbs. The selection is very extensive to meet every color desire and cultural situation. Bulbs are especially satisfactory because of the small amount of care they require and the fact that much of their food supply for first season blooming is stored in the bulbs when received makes them less critical of culture than many other plants. They should be planted this fall as early as possible where they have good drainage during the winter. ORDER NOW for delivery as soon as possible after new crop becomes available. Orders will be filled in sequence of arrival so the earlier you order the earlier your order will arrive. Shipping season extends from about September first to December fifth.

Many of these bulbs offered here may be treated as semi-permanent plantings for they may be naturalized - that is planted in the desired location and allowed to remain in their natural bed form for several years. Where this is done some added attention to fertility and continued food supply must be given. These are conditions easily supplied, however. A culture sheet accompanies every shipment so you should have no difficulty in culturing this material with complete satisfaction.

ALL SHIPMENTS PREPAID TO YOUR DOOR

All prices in this list are YOUR TOTAL COST. We ship either by parcel post or express at our option, depending on which is cheaper.

All imported Holland Bulbs are shipped direct from our import warehouse in New York thus permitting delivery to you as early as this stock is received from the Holland grower. This helps insure the delivery of fresh bulbs that arrive in good condition. American stock will be forwarded from the Grants Pass, Oregon warehouse. These are all western grown and this schedule gives you the best service.

Remember the importance of early ordering both from the standpoint of complete selections and early delivery. The earlier you order the better service we can give you for early season planting and the better will be your position on shipping schedules when stock shipping starts.

ABOUT ORDERING FROM THIS LIST

We are offering an unusually complete list of separate varieties in every group. These you will find to be most desirable sorts where specific colors are desired. Our mixtures are all of the most attractive types being made from stock grown as separate varieties. In ordering these varieties it will be necessary that names be carefully given.

We especially call your attention to our collections. These have been designed for those gardeners who want to become better acquainted with the variety of these bulbs. They give variety at a most reasonable cost and are most interesting to grow. Each variety in a collection will be found carefully marked and identified. No changes in collections can be made. In ordering these collections all you need give is "COLLECTION H" or "M" or whatever the collection identification letter is and the price.

QUANTITIES: Orders for less than $2.00 for bulbs cannot be accepted for mail delivery. Please do not order individual items in quantities different than those listed or multiples thereof. To illustrate, where offered by 12 and 100 only, any quantity less than 100 would take the 12 rate even though you wanted 60. Collections are advised where a range of colors is desired because they are planned to give the maximum of color variety at practically the 100 quantity rate.

ALWAYS inclose remittance covering full purchase price as listed in this catalogue. We will not ship any of this stock either C. O. D. or on open account. Under remittance will cause us to adjust order to the amount of remittance. Over remittance will be promptly refunded. You may remit by check, draft, postal or express moneyorder or postal note. Currency is to be sent with the understanding it is at your risk. Register if it is sent. Stamps will not be accepted in amounts of more than 50c nor denominations of over 10c.
